

The Victims of the 1889 Johnstown Flood

The list was originally published in the Johnstown Tribune on July 31, 1890; as a contemporary booklet of the list said, "So far as human agency can accomplish, it is complete. Here and there a name is missing; a name or two perhaps appears whose owner was not drowned; but the list has passed the jealous scrutiny of all survivors, and is pronounced correct." The original list was organized by burial place, while this copy of it is alphabetical by last name. This document was downloaded from the Web site of the Johnstown Flood Museum, which is owned and operated by the Johnstown Area Heritage Association. For much more about the flood and the museum, visit www.jaha.org.
